

KIRKFIELD HOUSE

Location

Take the A710 out of Dalbeattie towards Rockcliffe which is about five miles from Dalbeattie. Colvend Post Office and Stores is on the left-hand side of the road when entering the small village of Colvend.

The shop is well stocked with fresh and frozen produce, beers and wine. Newspapers are also on sale. Next to the shop is a café serving meals and afternoon teas.

For Kirkfield, as you enter Colvend with the loch on your left you will see a T junction on the right-hand side signposted Rockcliffe. Kirkfield is located off this road.

Detailed location and key collection point will be confirmed when booking.

The lounge

The comfortable lounge has a television, video and stereo unit. An electric fire as well as a storage heating system ensures this is a cosy place to retreat and relax. A selection of books and games can be found here too along with the Kirkfield Guide.

The kitchen

On occasions when you prefer to dine at home, the kitchen is well equipped with a modern oven and grill. There is a refrigerator and microwave oven and you will also find a slow cooker and a dishwasher.

The bathroom

The bathroom contains a toilet and washbasin, full size bath with electric shower over bath and glass shower screen. A second toilet is located along the landing.

The bedrooms

There are three bedrooms. One double and two twin. All three bedrooms have magnificent coastal or hillside views. Each has a wardrobe, drawers and bedside cabinets. All rooms are heated either by storage radiator or convector heater.

The stresses and strains of everyday working life are easily lost in this beautiful part of South West Scotland. The scenery and wildlife are some of nature's free attractions and the coastal and hill walks are many and varied. You will find more information on these and other local attractions in the guide kept at Kirkfield.
